

Dear valued business partner,

Foresco Pallets & Packaging has grown significantly in recent years through various acquisitions. While this has enabled us to considerably expand our services and product range, this growth also meant that we were working with different administrative systems and points of contact.

To streamline our organisation and make Foresco more transparent for you and our customers, our Belgian companies were merged into one legal entity on 1 January 2025: Foresco BE nv.

Our current details:

As of 1 January 2025, the following details apply to the Belgian sites:

Name : Foresco BE nv
Address : Eikelaarstraat 32, 3600 Genk
VAT no. : BE0439243813
Email addresses for invoices and invoice-related questions : See attachment

Important invoicing instructions

To ensure fast processing and payment, we kindly ask you to comply with the following.

- Clearly state the purchase order number (PO) on every supplier invoice.
- If you have not received a purchase order number, please state the site code and the name of the person who placed the order. You will find an overview of the site codes in the attachment.
- Send each invoice, including attachments, as one single PDF file.

Please note: If your invoice does not comply with the above instructions, we cannot guarantee timely processing and payment.

If you have any questions or comments in the meantime, please get in touch with your contacts at Foresco. We will be happy to assist you.

Kind regards,
